

Summer 2013 Programme

PGSA Colloquium Series

Mike Cuffaro

The Significance of the Gottesman-Knill Theorem
Field: Philosophy of Quantum Mechanics

June 5th

Mathieu Roy

Some Social Themes in Human Virtue: Friendship, Communitarianism, Law, and Whatever Else Comes Up
Field: Virtue Theory, Political Philosophy

June 12th

Nicolas McGinnis

Experimental Philosophy and the Theory of Reference: Notes on Emulation and Explanation
Field: Philosophy of Language, Experimental Philosophy

June 19th

Cameron Fenton

Competence and Value in Canadian Law
Field: Philosophy of Psychiatry, Philosophy of Law

June 26th

Zachary Munroe

Functional Analogical Models in Biomedical Research
Field: Philosophy of Biology

July 3rd

Molly Kao

Measurements of Planck's Constant in the Old Quantum Theory
Field: History and Philosophy of Physics

July 10th

Emma Ryman

Global Justice, Sufficiency, and Medical Research
Field: Distribute Justice, Bioethics

July 17th

Jessey Wright

Exploring the Relationship Between Phenomena and the Phenomenon They Are Used to Study
Field: Philosophy of Neuroscience, Philosophy of Science

July 24th

Adam Woodcox

The Stoic Theory of Cognitive Development
Field: Ancient Epistemology

August 7th

Mazen Zehairi

A 'Political Theory of Animal Rights'?: A Rawlsian Reply to Zoopolis
Field: Ethical Theory, Political Philosophy, Environmental Philosophy

August 14th

Jennifer Epp

TBA
Field: Epistemology

August 21st

Stevenson Hall
Room 3101

Wednesdays
1:00pm-2:00pm

Department of Philosophy
Philosophy Graduate Student Association
the University of Western Ontario

